

Hint: Pine trees are sometimes called this. EVERGREEN	Hint: You can carry lots of items in this. BACKPACK
Hint: At night in the woods, it is handy to have one of these. FLASHLIGHT	Hint: If you are going canoeing, you will need one of these. PADDLE
Hint: On a sunny day, you'll need lots of this. SUNSCREEN	Hint: At Girl Guide Camp, you might sleep in one of these. CABIN
Hint: To find your way on a hiking trail, use one of these. COMPASS	Hint: At a campsite at night, you'll be able to see these. STARS
Hint: While camping, you might see these animals in the woods. SQUIRRELS	Hint: Many Girl Guides love this part of camping the most. CAMPFIRE
Hint: Semaphore is a way of communicating using these. FLAGS	Hint: This is the most common colour on the Nautical Flags. BLUE
Hint: The Nautical Flag for the letter Q is this colour. YELLOW	Hint: This is the Military Alphabet word for the letter S. SIERRA
Hint: When using Semaphores on land, you use the Nautical Flag for P, called this. PAPA FLAG	Hint: When using Semaphores on sea, you use the Nautical Flag for O, called this. OSCAR FLAG
Hint: In the summer, it's nice to spend the day here. BEACH	Hint: The Letter J in Semaphore can also mean the start of these kind of characters. LETTERS

Hint: Sometimes this Canadian police force uses Semaphores to communicate in mountain ranges. RCMP	Hint: The symbol for this was originally the semaphore letters N and D combined (for Nuclear Disarmament). PEACE
Hint: In the winter, it's fun to do this sport. SKATING	Hint: Girl Guides like to trade these. SWAPS
Hint: In the fall, sometimes the weather is like this. FOGGY	Hint: Girl Guides open every meeting with this ceremony. HORSESHOE
Hint: When communicating with Semaphores, your arms should be like this. STRAIGHT	Hint: In the spring, you will see lots of these. FLOWERS
Hint: This is the provincial bird of Ontario. LOON	Hint: These are the cutest animals. BUNNIES
Hint: This is Canada's official summer sport. LACROSSE	Hint: This is what the word "Rideau" means in English. CURTAIN
Hint: This is the year of Canada's Confederation. 1967	Hint: This year was the start of World War II. 1939
Hint: This is the year that Girl Guides was officially founded. 1910	Hint: There are four nautical flags that have this shape on them. CROSS
Hint: This is a French word for a knit winter hat. TOQUE	Hint: This is Lady Baden-Powell's first name. OLAVE